

Tim Harrison

For all of his life Tim Harrison has worked as an artist, songwriter, and as a creator and producer of arts events. Along with founding the Owen Sound Summerfolk Festival, which is now 40 years old, Tim has been artistic director of the Mariposa, Northwind, and Eaglewood Folk Festivals, and more recently co-director of the Big Fish Music Festival on Gabriola Island.

Tim has released eight highly acclaimed recordings of original material and has toured extensively throughout the U.S. and Canada.

www.timharrison.ca