

Healing Power

©1999 Tim Harrison and Second Avenue Songs

Get back to the healing power
Get back to the healing power
Get back to the power in your soul

So you've been twisting in a black wind
'cause you got hurt somewhere in the past
And you've made a script to live by Something you believe will last

It's the story of a lifetime
There's always someone you can blame
It's well rehearsed and gotten so slick
But day after day, it's always the same

Chorus

And one day you'll forget to remember
What your old plot was all about
You'll be caught in a spotlight
And there will be no way out

Chorus

Bridge

Someone sailed a deep ocean
Where they'd never been before
Someone climbed a big mountain
And never looked back anymore

You are a child of your god
It doesn't serve if you stay small
Don't be afraid to let your light shine
Don't be afraid to stand up tall

Chorus
