I saw you standin in the garden
Waitin for the birds to come in
Waitin for the clouds to be liftin'
Thinkin bout the places you have been

Lookin for the right time to be dancing
Lookin for the right time for a rest
Lookin for the blooms and the growin'
That's the time that always feels the best

Chorus:

And you breathe out and breathe in the beauty
Your light is shining bright against the sky
Breath out and breath in the beauty
That's what you choose as time flows by

I see you smilin at the sundown
I see you laughing with the trees
I see your arms stretch in the moonlight
Being all that you can be

Chorus
