

Song To Bobby

©Tim Harrison and Second Avenue Songs

You've been walkin' the road and you wrote it song
I've been hearin' your stories for all my life long
Of kingdoms and horses and blood on the tracks
How you live for today and you never look back

Hey Hey Bob Dylan I know that you know
The dreams you deliver and a thousand times more
You're singin' your songs and there's never a lack
The muse in your sights and the wind at your back

Here's to Lightfoot and Kate Wolf and Michael Smith too
And all of the folks who just did what they do
Here's to the works and the days of them all
The many good people who answered the call

I'm out here 4000 miles from my home
I could never stay put I was just bound to roam
And the very last thing that I want to do
Is to say that I hit some hard travelin' too
