

Train Goin' East Part II
©Tim Harrison and Second Avenue Songs

I headed out on a train goin' East
To seek my fortune and to find some peace
My head it was reelin' and my mind it was gone
So I spent my time seekin' higher ground

Then the snows they came... in November's grey
The cold came too and it came to stay
So I danced 'cross the boards on the freezin' floor
To convince that fire to make heat once more

Chorus:

Well this life may be golden or it may be unkind
But one thing's for sure it can leave you behind
So maybe as you travel keep your eye on the road
And you just might find something to lighten your load.

By times I played on my old guitar
I found it was calling and it seemed to raise the bar
For my heart to be here and my heart to be free
It brought somethin' inside and it felt like me
